MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Foreign Broadcast Information Service

THROUGH: Chief, Operations Group

SUBJECT: Monthly Report - Bangkok Bureau - January 1985

I. GENERAL

Vietnam followed up its vigorous early dry season offensive in Cambodia by overrunning the headquarters near the Thai border of the KPNLF faction of the resistance forces in early January and dealing other sharp blows to that faction. By month's end the Vietnamese also were preparing to attack Khmer Rouge strongholds in the area. One result has been increased clashes with Thai forces, which in turn elicited Chinese expressions of support for Thailand and the Cambodian resistance as well as heightened warnings of trouble along the Sino-Vietnamese border.

The bureau's Vietnamese unit processed what seems to be a local best seller, an article on Vietnam's policy in Cambodia by Politburo member Gen. Le Duc Anh in the military journal TAP CHI QUAN DOI NHAN DAN. Texted from installments carried by Hanoi radio, the article attracted attention for its discussion of Indochina as an integrated strategic theater, of the problems encountered by the Vietnamese from their involvement in Cambodia, and of the need to develop a Cambodian political infrastructure. (Among others using the bureau's translation, the Bangkok POST Indochina commentator failed to notice that some of the passages he quoted used "Kampuchea" while other quotations used "Cambodia"--the change in FBIS style having taken place while the series of installments was in progress.)

II. OPERATIONS

A. Monitorial/Editorial

1. Following more than 6 months of nearly unmonitorable coverage of the clandestine Vietnam Resistance Radio, probably due to jamming, the bureau ceased wirefiling program summaries to Headquarters and BBC effective 7 January. These are now being pouched to AG.

2. The training of new South Asian monitor who gives the bureau a Tamil capability, has progressed to the point that a Colombo and a Moscow Tamil-language cast could be added to coverage effective 30 January.

B. Lateral Services

At a dinner party attended by Deputy Chief on 30 January, Australian Ambassador Gordon Jockel, dean of the diplomatic corps in Thailand and former director of the JIO, praised FBIS translations at length. During a discussion of the Le Duc Anh article, Jockel said he had obtained from the American Embassy the FBIS version of the item in order to have the "definitive translation" and went on to say that he had been seeking out FBIS translations of important items for more than 30 years.

C. Technical

1. The bureau received and has already effectively employed a system of Motorola paging receivers. These will ensure that a technician or the engineers can be contacted after duty hours or when the telephone system is not working (which is often the case at present).

2. The bureau has received its third IBM-PC, and eight employees have been designated to receive training on the computers from contractors being sent from Headquarters in February. Communications Section chief [] is providing a crash introductory course to the those designated students who have little or no experience with computers.

III. ADMINISTRATION

A. Personnel

Teletypist [] gave birth to a boy on 16 January.

B. Building and Grounds

The air conditioning system on the operations floor has been providing uneven coverage, particularly in the evening hours, throughout the month. The Kian Gwan service personnel and the bureau engineers have been spending considerable time adjusting the system to work reliably.

IV. VISITS

A. Darryl Johnson, political counselor, American Embassy, Beijing, visited the bureau 4 January.

B. Bahrain senior editor [] visited the bureau on 10 January while on private travel.

C. Islamabad Unit Chief [] visited the bureau on TDY on 16 January.

D. Bahrain Chief Monitor [] visited the bureau 17 January while on private travel.

V. COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

A. Chief Monitor [] won the 5-6 January doubles tennis tournament of the Rama IV Club, the weekend club composed principally of FBIS, Aerothai, Thai military and Thai government employees.

B. Deputy Chief [] traveled to the northern city of Chiang Mai under the sponsorship of USIS to give a lecture on music at Payap University on 14 January and a lecture on drama at the Chiang Mai Drama Festival on the 15th. He has since been asked to repeat the drama lecture at the university in the southern city of Songkla as well. (These activities suggest interesting rotation possibilities.) (HINT)
